Proceedings: (In Chambers) Order to Show Cause Why Case Should Not Be Dismissed for Failure to Effect Service and Prosecute

On October 12, 2018, plaintiff filed a complaint against defendant CCRSCA and unnamed Doe defendants. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), plaintiff was required to serve each defendant with the summons and complaint within 90 days after the complaint's filing, that is, no later than January 10, 2019. That date has now passed, but plaintiff has not filed any proof of such service with the court, nor is there any other indication before the court that the complaint has been served on defendant.

Accordingly, plaintiff is ORDERED to show cause in writing by January 30, 2019 why this case should not be dismissed without prejudice for plaintiff's failure to prosecute and serve defendant within the required time period. Plaintiff may discharge this Order to Show Cause by filing, not later than January 30, 2019, proof of service of the summons and complaint.

The court warns plaintiff that failure to respond to the Order to Show Cause by January 30, 2019, or further failure to prosecute this action in accordance with court orders, may result in dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute.
